As ordered by the Court in its May 9, 2018 minute entry, a second deposition of Plaintiff, Kelly Gahan, may go forward at a time and place to be agreed to by the parties. That deposition is to be limited in scope to matters concerning the "Taxotears" Google group. The parties are to report to the Court at the next status conference the progress they have made in arranging the deposition of Shirley Ledlie and production of documents by Ms. Ledlie.

The Court again refrains from ordering Sanofi to produce its document retention policies. However, no later than July 5, 2018, the PSC is to inform counsel for Sanofi of the additional information it requires to be set forth in Sanofi's summaries of its document retention policies that were provided pursuant to PTO 49. No later than July 18, 2018, counsel for Sanofi are to provide updated and more detailed summaries of its document retention policies setting forth the information requested by the PSC.

The next in-person discovery status conference will be held on July 18, 2018 at 1:30 p.m.
